

How to initialize Versaworks

Initializing Versaworks can be necessary in certain cases where Versaworks is having issues. For example, if Versaworks does not open, issues after updating the software, or changing printer ink. You can follow the link below for more information:

When initializing Versaworks it is important to initialize the Application Permanent Data:

Click on initialize > Detail Mode > Add Application permanent Data

